

CONSERVATION WALKS

The site of the Roman town of Venta Icenorum is owned by the Norfolk Archaeological Trust and the whole area designated on the map is managed under the Countryside Stewardship Scheme to preserve these important archaeological remains and to benefit the wildlife and landscape of the Tas valley. It is open for public access and we hope you will enjoy your visit.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Country Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends in September 2012. For more information contact DEFRA: 020 7238 5909 (Office hours).
